

Mr. Aftab Ahmed Mazari

Instrumentation Expert & Senior Trainer

Mr. Aftab Ahmed Mazari holds a vast practical experience of more than 43 years as an instrument engineer. He did his science graduation from Punjab University and industrial instrumentation training from Russia.

He started his career from Pakistan Steel and worked with them 10 years, then joined Fauji Fertilizer Company (FFC) and retired with an enriched experience of 30 years. Then he joined SABIC, KSA as an instrument / consultant engineer and worked there one year.

Mr. Aftab Ahmed Mazari holds a wide experience of instrument consultation, RCM, reliability and trainings. He delivered trainings / courses to local as well as foreign clients including SABIC, KSA and local multination companies like ENI, Lotte, BHP, Engro and HUBCO etc.

He has developed various trainings aids for instrument engineers / technicians which includes simulators (training rigs), vibration simulator, Vibration switch testing rig, speed simulator, compound gear simulator and SOV training rig.

He also made cutaway models of control valves, PSV, Rotameter, temperature sensors, pressure regulators, volume booster, trip relay etc.

Mr. Aftab Ahmed Mazari has also authored 8 industrial instrumentation books for instrument / operation crew which are referred to by instrument / operation personnel in various factories in Pakistan.