

Mr. Sven B. Svensson

Senior NDT & Inspection Consultant

With over three decades of experience in Non-Destructive Testing (NDT), project management, and inspection services, Sven B. Svensson brings a wealth of technical expertise and leadership to every assignment. A Swedish national, he holds extensive academic credentials from the University of Gothenburg, where he studied Geosciences, Radio Physics, and Pedagogics, complemented by numerous technical and management certifications.

Sven is fluent in Swedish, Norwegian, Danish, and English, with additional working knowledge of German, French, and Spanish. His professional journey spans a diverse range of industries — including Fertilizer plants, power plants, oil rigs, refineries, and nuclear facilities — where he has led and executed complex inspection projects focused on quality assurance, safety, and reliability.

He has worked under multiple NDT certifications such as EN 473/NORDTEST level 2-UT, MT, PT, VT, EN 473/NORDTEST level 1- RT, SNT-TC-1A ed.2006 level 2-ET, SNT-TC-1A ed. 2006 level 2 VT, along with qualifications in, corrosion analysis, and safety management. His technical background also includes expertise in, heat exchanger examination, and hydraulic fluid dynamics.

He worked with Force Technology Denmark for 19 years and after retirement Known for his precision, reliability, and deep technical insight, Sven continues to contribute to advancing inspection technologies and global best practices in asset integrity management.